Come out and join instructors from the MGs of Baltimore and the Sports Car Club of America to learn or brush up on the skills of automotive road rallying. We will spend the morning (coffee included) and part of the afternoon giving students the basics of rallying and route following, with a focus on how to have fun rallying. After a light lunch of hot dogs, chips and soft drinks you will head out onto the roads to run a short rally (about 30 miles). This will give teams the opportunity to apply some of the information learned in the morning session. After the rally there will be a short debriefing to answer questions on things that came up during the driving portion. The registration fee includes a “How to Rally” book for your permanent reference, morning coffee, and lunch. In order to cover all of this material our schedule is tight—preregister and be on hand at 10:00 a.m.

Chris Bean at c_bean@verizon.net

Please preregister! Due to the amount of printed material that you will receive and to adequately plan for the refreshments and lunch that will be served we need to know how many people will be in attendance. Otherwise, awkward shortages in food or printed materials maybe unavoidable. Registrations are due by April 10th.
